MRS. ZENO WALL

Wife Of Veteran Baptist Minister Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Ada Ramsey Wall, 66, wife of Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor emeritus of the First Baptist Church, died Wednesday night at 6:25 o'clock in the Cleveland Memorial Hospital following an illness of two months. Death was attributed to cancer, for which she had been hospitalized for six weeks.

Mrs. Wall was born in Marshall, Madison County, on Oct. 29, 1892, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Ramsey. She married Dr. Wall May 4, 1911, and had lived in Shelby for the past 34 years. Her residence was at 853 W. Marion St.

Her husband is well-known throughout church circles in North Carolina, having served for two years as president of the N. C. Baptist State Convention and for two years as general superintendent of the Baptist Orphanage at Thomasville. Since his pastorate at the First Baptist Church he has served Elizabeth Baptist Church for two years. Although formally retired, he still does supply preaching.

Surviving Mrs. Wall besides her husband, are two daughters, Mrs. Ollie Harris of Kings Mountain and Mrs. Walter Fanning of Ridge-wood, N. J.; three sons, Zeno Wall Jr. of Morristown, Tenn., Yates Wall of Winston-Salem, and Woodrow Wall of Knoxville, Tenn.

One brother, Paul Ramsey of Cincinnati, Ohio, and one sister, Mrs. Stanley Bantoft of Detroit, Mich., also survive. Another sister, Mrs. William West of Marshall, died 10 days ago. Eleven grandchildren survive.

Mrs. Wall was a member of the First Baptist Church where the funeral will be held Friday at 3 p.m., conducted by the Rev. John Lawrence and Horace Easom.

Burial will be in the Elizabeth Baptist Church cemetery.

The body will be at the Lutz-Austell Funeral Home until 30 minutes before the funeral hour when it will be taken to the church.
